About 17,200 miles, nine months, and two new tires later, two Pahokee citizens are in business, literally.

Mrs. Margaret Vandegrift and Mrs. Ruby Vandegrift decided last spring that they would open a beauty shop in Pahokee.

Only one little thing stood in their way — a training course for nine long months, conducted in West Palm Beach.

WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

By Sen. George Smathers

WASHINGTON — Next Wednesday the Congress of the United States will reconvene for what is expected to be one of the most momentous and vital sessions in the history of the nation.

Many domestic issues challenge the nation's legislative body and grave problems face the President and the executive branch of the government.

The year 1954 could mark a crossroads in this nation's history, and might pose a turning point for the entire world and its civilization. There assuredly will be political decisions, and political choices, which will chart the course of our nation's two party system for years.

It is encouraging to note that the leaders of both parties in the Congress approach their tasks prayerfully, in a spirit of dedication, and hopefully as benefactors of a Bright New Year.

HOUSING HOPES: The Housing and Home Finance Agency has announced a million-home goal for 1954, with a program heavily dependent upon cooperation of private industry. Director Albert Cole's announcement has produced mixed reactions here but most have adopted a wait-and-see attitude.

NEW FARM AID: When Secretary Benson approved an emergency loan program for 17 Florida counties hit by floods, he promised me prompt attention to requests for inclusion of additional counties under this Farmers Home Administration operation. Manatee now is added to the list and the door still open for others which have a genuine need.

NEWS NOTES OFF THE CUFF: Most of my staff has just come home for Christmas; that means it will take a day or two longer to respond to your letters (you know it is Christmas during the holiday season!).

Dr. Milton Eisenhower, back from a tour of Latin America, seems to have such a grasp of the problems of inter-American relations that I am urging him, as a logical follow-up to his report, to join us in bringing about the cultural and trade center at Miami. . . . We have been within a hair's breadth of having a government financial support for this project and a nod from the President would do the trick. . . . MY STAFF JOINS ME IN WISHING FOR ALL FLORIDA A BRIGHT, PROSPEROUS 1954!

They went over to Palm Beach Vocational Beauty School and signed up for the course. . . . It started at 8:15 a.m. and ended at 3:10. Both the Mrs. Vandegrifts have families and both keep house.

But they not only enrolled in the school, they kept attending regularly, driving 100 miles a day including to lunch, alternating cars and even struggling the long way round through Belle Glade when Connor's Highway was again impassable last fall.

Mrs. Ruby Vandegrift has bought two new tires, and Mrs. Margaret Vandegrift says the Jim Vandegrift family car has the shakes.

Nevertheless, this week the Mesdames Vandegrift received their operators' permits, and Monday take their state board examinations in Miami.

And they are ready to stand up a set of startling questions, such as what is the difference between paronychia and onychomycosis (fingernails and brittle nails), or discourse on any part of beauty culture from management to chemistry.

The Vandegrift Beauty Salon, which opened in charge of Mrs. Celeste Youngblood some weeks back, will now have a full staff. The Vandegrifts will continue to work under Mrs. Youngblood for a year, to meet the requirements of the state board.

The two students of the vocational beauty school who came from the farthest away were — sure enough — the local girls. So this year, when the Christmas party kites, made up from classroom fines during the year, was ready to spend, the whole class and the instructors who taught the Vandegrifts came to Pahokee for the annual Christmas party. Mr. and Mrs. Ruby Vandegrift, er, were host and hostess.

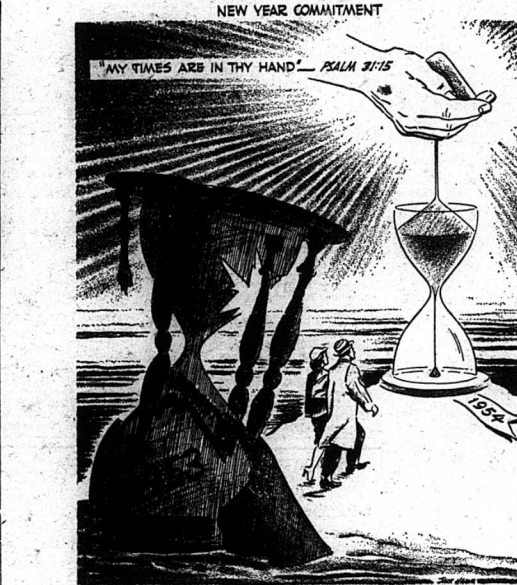

In private life, Margaret is Mrs. Jim Vandegrift. She has been a Glades resident for 10 years, coming here from Ellerbe, N.C. Ruby is Mrs. Marvin Vandegrift, who came here nine years ago from Lake City, S.C. The Messrs. Vandegrift both work with Vandegrift-Williams Farms, Inc.

$11,000 SO FAR

ON 'PANCAKE PICNIC'

A total of $11,000.00 has been realized to date on the benefit Aunt Jemima Pancake Picnic held Saturday and Sunday at the Autostar in Hypoluxo.

Mrs. Nancy Parsons, ticket chairman, reported the total received Tuesday and said that a final report would be made Saturday. All funds received from the Pancake Picnic go to the Palm Beach County Crippled Children's Society Building Fund and will be used for construction of a second floor of the society's treatment building.

T. L. SELLERS IS PROMOTED

T. L. Sellers, Pahokee, has been promoted to district freight and passenger agent in charge of the Lake Okechobee territory, the Southern Railway Co. announced Wednesday.

Sellers has been commercial agent in Pahokee. He will have office headquarters at Belle Glade, in his new position, but will continue to live in Pahokee.

C. E. Maynard, of Belle Glade, has been promoted to district freight and passenger agent at Orlando. Both he and Sellers have been in the Glades since 1934.

T. J. Cartwright has been appointed commercial agent at Belle Glade, succeeding Maynard.

Recent studies indicate that most U.S. families eat turkey only once or twice a year. Chicken is the most popular and is served at least once a week by 25% of all families. Less than one fourth of the families eat duck more than once a year and only 9% ever eat goose.

Lobsters, which were once thought to do little ocean traveling, drift hundreds of miles as tiny spiderlike lobsters before being set down to the seabottom. In this stage they are almost transparent, the National Geographic Society says.

PAHOKEE, CANAL POINT FALL SHORT ON SEALS

Both Pahokee and Canal Point were below their last year's totals in the 1953 Christmas Seal sale, County Chairman A. Parker Bryant announced this week.

Pahokee's total was $345.27, Canal Point's, $158.72, as against $500 and $218, respectively, the year before. Bryant said he hoped late returns would add somewhat to the final total.

Billy Graham Film "Mr. Texas" Is To Be Shown At First Baptist Church

"Mr. Texas," the world's first Christian western, starring Redd Harper will be shown next Thursday at First Baptist Church of Pahokee. This picture which was produced by Billy Graham and directed by Dick Ross, and is one of the most popular religious films in America today.

The film will be shown two times on Thursday, once at 7 p.m. and once at 8:30 p.m. Any one in the Glades area who wishes to be cordially invited to attend, according to Rev. W. Hal Hunter, pastor.

In his leading role in "Mr. Texas," Harper portrays a 20th century Texas cowboy, rodeo riding and all — and for Redd Harper that part required very little acting. Born in the range country of Texas in the little town of Nocona, Redd spent much of his life right in the great Southwest, moving while still a boy to Muskogee, Okla. where he was graduated from high school.

Was A 'Sooner'

At the University of Oklahoma, Redd was a member of the original "Sooners" band, and later served as drum major of the ROTC band at the university. During his college days, while majoring first in Journalism and later in music, Redd began his career in dance orchestra work, a career that saw him playing in major cities across America, until he settled in Los Angeles in 1933.

After returning from the service, Redd began singing western music, and in January, 1948, he began his broadcast of "Redd Harper's Hollywood Roundup" over the Armed Forces Network.

Redd's introduction to Christian service came with a decision to live his life for God, to be natural to him, and to remain together while receiving recruit training. Men enlisting in the Marine Corps, or who are interested in learning of the advantages of a career in the Armed Forces, are invited to meet Sgt. Miller during those hours. Age requirements for men with no previous military experience is 17 - 31 inclusive.

USMC RECRUITER HERE TUESDAYS

Marine recruiter, Sergeant Elwood A. Miller, will be at the Pahokee Post Office every Tuesday during January from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. to interview applicants for the Marine Corps.

Young men in the Pahokee-Canal Point area desiring information about enlisting in the Marine Corps, or who are interested in learning of the advantages of a career in the Armed Forces, are invited to meet Sgt. Miller during those hours. Age requirements for men with no previous military experience is 17 - 31 inclusive.

Sgt. Miller reminds all men that enlistments are still being accepted in the Everglades Platoon now being formed. This is a group of all-Florida Marines who will be sent to Parris Island as a unit and remain together while receiving recruit training. Men enlisting in the Everglades Platoon will leave home until after the holidays on January 20, 1954. "Here's your chance to go to 'boot camp with your buddy,'" Sgt. Miller points out.

Building Permits Rise In Pahokee

A jump of nearly $74,000 in building permits in Pahokee was recorded at year's end yesterday by Building Inspector Frank Thompson.

This represents the best record since 1949, for new construction.

SOC. SECURITY RATE RAISED

The social security tax rate for persons whose work counts toward old-age and survivors' insurance is scheduled to increase on the first of January, 1954, to 2 1/2 percent.

The West Palm Beach social security office, reminded employers, employees, and self-employed people this week.

This scheduled increase in tax contribution is in accordance with the 1950 amendments to the social security law, and was enacted by Congress in anticipation of future obligations of the program.

Employees in jobs covered by the law will have 2 percent instead of the present 1 1/2 percent deducted from their pay beginning with the first of January up to earnings of $300 a year; their employees will contribute an equal amount.

The new rates will apply to all taxable wages paid after December 31, 1953, regardless of when earned.

Self-Employed Jumps

The social security tax for the self-employed is scheduled to increase from the present 2 1/4 percent to 3 percent, for the period commencing Jan. 1, 1954. Since the self-employed whose work is covered by the law pay their tax just once yearly at the time of filing their Federal income tax return, they will pay the present 2 1/4 percent social security tax on their 1953 income that begins to be due March 15, 1954, for the calendar year 1954.

The next schedule increase, six years from now, in 1960, will be to 2 1/2 percent each for employer and employee, and 3 1/4 percent for the self-employed.

The 1953 total, from January 1 to December 31, was $279,315, or $73,597 more than the 1952 total.

For the same 12-month period in 1952, the building permit total was $205,716, Thompson said.

The encouraging rise was due mainly to the work of construction of the new Hillier motel-hotel and construction of two new housing units in colored town, according to the city inspector.

New Homes Help

New home starts helped the total, and indications are that they will help start the new year right, too, Thompson said.

In 1949, with the construction of Everglades Memorial Hospital, the permit total was $348,590, according to Thompson's records.

The following year, 1950, the amount dropped dismally to $186,080. The 1951 total was $197,608.

MORE MAIL IN YULE RUSH

Up to Christmas, Pahokee Post Office handled 3,140 more pieces of Christmas and first class mail than the Dec. 1-25 period of 1952, Postmaster E. A. Jensen reported this week.

In 1952, the same period showed 60,101 pieces, Jensen said. This year the total was 63,241.

Insured packages were down slightly this year, 445 as against 450 last year. Uninsured and postpaid packages totaled between 1200 and 1500, the postmaster estimated.

Gross postal receipts, including all sales, reached $4,015.89 for the Christmas period this year, as against $2,657.48 last year. However, Jensen said, the Christmas sales to businesses influence the monthly totals, and in this case account for the higher figure.

ROTARIANS HAVE YULE PARTY

Elmer Jones was chairman of the Christmas program and arrangements of Pahokee Rotary Club on Christmas Eve. He presented Rev. W. Hal Hunter who spoke of the real meaning of Christmas and gave the origin of St. Nicholas.

Gifts were distributed by Santa Claus as the members had drawn names the previous week. Mrs. John A. Dulany, Rotary Ann, who has served as club reporter for the past 18 months, was presented a gift from the club, as were Mrs. W. H. Key and Mrs. Marvin Levins, who prepare and serve the meals. Guests included Rotarian W. H. Cleaver of Camden, N.J.; Jones Phillips of Easley, S.C.; and Eugene Buchanan, Canal Point, student at University of Florida.

Dear Publisher:
In reading your paper this week (I love Schatz's column) my eyes bugged out when I saw the enclosed ad for Royal's. Could I prevail on you to give up this font? It really belongs to the Enterprise. I would be happy to buy it—would you name a price?—or replace it with any modern face of the same (or near the same) size that you would select.

We watched the building of your new plant with considerable interest as we were doing the same thing. Our plant is housed in a new brick lean-to at the rear of the Enterprise Building on "D".

Would you let me know about the ornate old wood type? Sincerely,

PAHOKEE METHODISTS ACCEPT PLANS FOR NEW CHURCH BUILDINGS AT SUNDAY SERVICE

The membership of First Methodist Church of Pahokee Sunday accepted the plans for the new $75,000 church additions. The building committee, including Dr. R. A. Guy, pastor; Lewis Friend, chairman; Jack Spencer, L. L. Shirley, Mrs. H. M. McIntosh, and Clyde Canipe, presented the plans, which include new church school rooms, a chapel, library, kitchen, and outside lavatory. The building, which will be the main speaker, will be the main speaker. The building fund presently totals more than $15,000. The remainder is to be raised by pledges which may be spread over a period of three years.

Recommended control of wireworm and other soil pests
... on all Florida
vegetable crops

aldrin

LAST year aldrin established a fine record of soil pest control on Florida corn, sugar cane and sweet potatoes. Now aldrin is recommended by Florida Experiment Stations for use on every important vegetable crop in the state.

Aldrin gives you these important control advantages:

1. Powerful killing action—all-season freedom from soil pest damage with just one application.

2. Chemical stability—Aldrin remains stable regardless of the pH of the soil (acid or alkaline). This stability holds even when aldrin is mixed with fertilizer.

3. Can be used two ways—in an aldrin-fertilizer mix, or sprayed directly on the ground and harrowed in.

4. Low per-acre cost—a direct result of aldrin's high killing power.

So—for healthy crops get aldrin. Your fertilizer or insecticide dealer can supply you.

Mr. Mrs. Gerrold I. Schmidt

Mr. and Mrs. Gerrold I. Schmidt returned from their wedding trip Christmas Eve to spend Christmas Day with her parents, who also had as Christmas guests their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cosby Crews and family of Eau Gallie.

Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt were married Dec. 20 at First Baptist Church, Pahokee, with Rev. W. Hal Hunter officiating at the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Schmidt, the former Miss Frances Marion Crews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Crews, wore a gown of white Chantilly lace over satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, portrait neckline, and with a full skirt descending into a long train. A tiara of seed pearls, from which fell a nylon net veil, and the bridegroom's gift of a single strand of pearls completed her wedding costume. She carried a bridal bouquet of red roses centered with white orchids.

Miss Mary Ellen Crews, sister of the bride and maid of honor, wore rose nylon net over taffeta, with fitted strapless bodice, lace bolero, and full skirt. The bridesmaids, Misses Betty Bush, Charlene Stuckey, and Marcia Jo Guthrie, wore identical gowns of blue nylon net over taffeta, in the same style as the maid of honor's gown. The attendants wore lace mitts and carried sprays of white blossoms. Verlon Jones, flower girl, wore blue net over taffeta. Best man was Joe Loscody, of West Palm Beach. Ushers were James E. Turner, Lewis W. Billup, and Roland J. Gelinas, of West Palm Beach.

The reception was held at the Woman's Club building. Receiving with the newlyweds and Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Crews was Mr. Gerrold I. Schmidt, sr., of Randolph, Wis., mother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Schmidt, a member of the senior class at Pahokee high school, will complete the school year here. Mr. Schmidt, USAF Airman 1/c, will return to duty at the Palm Beach Air Force Base.

PERSONAL

Ted Curd of West Palm Beach is the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Dulany and son Philip.

TREATING COLDS

The common cold is not a serious ailment until it develops into complications such as pneumonia, bronchitis or an ear infection.

Some symptoms which may mean the cold has progressed into complications are a fever that lasts more than two or three days, a severe headache, achiness, chest pains, hard coughing spells or rusty looking sputum. When any of these symptoms are present, a doctor should be consulted.

If an earache appears, the doctor should know about it without delay. His treatment may prevent an infection or ruptured ear drum. Children and infants are especially susceptible to discomfort in the ears. It is sometimes difficult for the mother to determine, but most babies before extreme pain develops will turn their heads from side to side in an unusual way or attempt to hold the ear that is bothering.

All these complications begin with a cold, and while there is not yet a danger of the disease, it is possible to keep most colds from developing into other diseases.

At the first sign of a cold, it is best to stay in bed. Of course, most adults cannot follow this advice, but children can be kept at home if not in bed. They will be more comfortable and the cold will not be spread to other children. They will be safe at home in bed if the illness turns out to be one of the other diseases which have symptoms similar to a cold.

A cold sufferer should be kept comfortably warm and protected from direct drafts and changing temperatures. He should drink plenty of liquids and eat moderately.

Almost everyone who has had a cold will have a favorite remedy for curing other people. There is not at the present time any preparation or medication which has been widely proven to be a specific cure for the common cold. It is a good idea not to experiment with various remedies recommended by the physician for someone else.

NOSE DROPS

This is the time for colds and their resulting stuffy noses. Consequently the nose drop bottle will appear again upon the medicine shelf.

It is the wise mother who will ask her doctor to recommend the best of drops suitable to her family. He will welcome the inquiry because he is aware that some of them may do more harm than good.

To understand the danger of nose drops it is well to consider the function of the nose. In addition to an organ for breathing and smelling, it is a germ trap. Resistance to infection is accomplished partly by secretion of mucus and partly by tiny hair-like filaments known as cilia. Vast numbers of cilia projecting from the surface of the mucus membrane move constantly to and fro and with the mucus trap alien dust and bacteria. These are then carried to the back of the throat where they are either swallowed or expectorated.

Normally the interior of the nose is slightly on the acid side because acid surroundings are unfavorable to the growth of disease producing bacteria. It has been found that in colds this condition has been changed to an alkaline, germ-favoring state.

Therefore it should be clear that any nose drops that slow down or stop the cilia or interfere with the function of the mucus are harmful. Further, nose drops should always be slightly acid so as to combat germs rather than alkaline which would aid in their growth.

Some drops when used carelessly for every little sniffle may cause nervousness, sleeplessness and a rise in blood pressure. The person with high blood pressure or a heart condition should obtain his doctor's advice before using nose drops at any particular time.

Generally nose drops should be administered only when stuffiness and blockage are very annoying. They should never be given over periods longer than a week unless the doctor advises differently.

BARBECUED BEANS CASSEROLE

A hearty casserole of barbecued California dry lima, topped with sautéed frankfurters, makes one of the best-tasting dishes you've ever eaten. Simmer the soaked lima for 30 minutes while you prepare the savory barbecue sauce, then bake the beans and sauce together about 1 1/2 to 2 hours. Add frankfurters to the casserole the last half hour of baking.

- 1 1/2 cups California large dry lima
- 1 diced medium-sized onion
- 1 minced clove garlic
- 1 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 (8 ounce) can tomato sauce
- 1 cup brown sugar (packed)
- 1 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/4 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1/4 teaspoon catsup
- 6 to 8 frankfurters

Soak lima beans in 2 cups water 5 to 6 hours or overnight. Bring to boil then turn heat low and simmer about 30 minutes, adding additional hot water if necessary. Fry onion and garlic in olive oil until golden in color. Stir in tomato sauce, brown sugar, lemon juice, mustard, salt, Worcestershire sauce and catsup. Heat to boiling. Place drained beans in baking dish, pour hot sauce over them. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F) 1 1/2 hours, adding hot bean liquid if needed. Score frankfurters and press lightly into top of sauce, spooning some of sauce over them. Bake 30 minutes longer. Serves 5 to 6.

Now Mrs. Sears

Miss Stella Sue Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer S. Barnes, Pahokee, became the bride of Charles Bruce Sears, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Harlan Sears, sr., Canal Point, Sunday, Dec. 27, at 4 p.m. at First Baptist Church.

The nuptial vows were exchanged before an altar banked with Christmas trees and moss. Cathedral candles burned in candelabras, baskets of yellow gladioli and blue iris completed the setting.

Rev. W. Hal Hunter, pastor, read the double ring ceremony, and music was presented by Miss Louise Hutton, who sang a solo, and a duet with Miss Donna Jo Spooner. Miss Patricia Maxson was accompanist and played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and chantilly lace over nylon net that she had designed and which was made by her mother. The satin bodice, appliqued with satin ribbon, was fashioned with tulle yoke, and long sleeves which formed petal points over the wrists. The Chantilly lace skirt was tiered and her nylon veil was held in place by a spray of orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book centered with white orchids and orange blossoms from which fell white satin streamers. Her only jewelry was a ring given to her by the bridegroom's mother, which has been in the family 140 years.

Mrs. Ernest James Barnes, Tampa, sister-in-law of the bride, and matron of honor, wore rose taffeta, with fitted bodice, cap sleeves and full length skirt. Of the bridesmaids, Miss Marion Carroll of Naples, matched their gowns.

Raybeth Jeanne Gray, cousin of the bride, and Dian Holton, cousin of the bridegroom, wore mint green taffeta and carried baskets of flower petals.

H. Harlan Sears, jr. was his brother's best man. Ushers were: Bill Mizelle, Clewiston; John T. Pickett, jr., Gainesville, and S/Sgt. Ernest James Barnes, Tampa.

Following a wedding trip to the east coast the bridal couple will make their home in Canal Point. Mr. Sears is associated with his father in business. Mrs. Sears is a senior at Pahokee high school and will graduate in June.

ENGAGEMENTS

AMMONS - EVANS

Mr. and Mrs. C. Wade Ammons of Canal Point, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Shirley Ann Ammons, to Billy Ray Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Evans, Belle Glade.

Miss Ammons is a senior at Pahokee high school and will graduate in June. She is a former worthy advisor of the Pahokee Rainbow G.F.F.s. Mr. Evans was graduated from Belle Glade high school and the University of Florida. He will enter the U.S. Air Force January 15 as a Second Lieutenant and will be stationed at San Antonio, Tex. Air Base.

The wedding will take place in June.

Tampa, brother of the bride. The bride's mother wore purple velvet with pink accessories and a purple orchid. Mrs. Sears chose for her son's wedding blue for the bride of Charles Bruce Sears, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Harlan Sears, sr., Canal Point, Sunday, Dec. 27, at 4 p.m. at First Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes entertained with a reception at their home immediately following the wedding. Assisting were Mrs. W. R. Wilson at the bride's book; Miss Nancy Hillier, Eleanor Walker, and Anne Thompson at the refreshment table. Miss Boncousin of the bride, wore iridescent silver taffeta; Miss Walta Nell Hull, in blue taffeta; Miss Judy Starling, candy pink taffeta; and the bridesmatron, Mrs. John T. Pickett, jr., in mist blue. Each of the attendants' gowns were trimmed with seed pearls; they wore mitts. All carried carnations. Missed in various shades of pink to rose with leaves designed of materials like Miller played piano numbers.

Following a wedding trip to the east coast the bridal couple will make their home in Canal Point. Mr. Sears is associated with his father in business. Mrs. Sears is a senior at Pahokee high school and will graduate in June.

Mrs. Pearl Agner entertained members of the Barnes-Sears bridal party following the rehearsal of the wedding on Saturday evening. In addition to members of the bridal party there were present: Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Sizemore; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Agner of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Agner and family, Indianapolis, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Buster Kilpatrick and son Johnny of Christmas; Mrs. N. E. Carroll of Naples; Mrs. W. Hal Hunter, and H. Harlan Sears, sr.

In addition to the out-of-town guests mentioned above, also attending the wedding were N. E. Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barnes, Mrs. H. T. Barnes and son Charles, all of Naples; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hamilton, New Smyrna; Mr. and Mrs. Al Russo, Delray Beach; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Sears, Clewiston; Mrs. H. W. Murphy, Clewiston; Fruit Sears of Miami; and Mrs. Marian Hamilton, West Palm Beach.
